PORTLAND MARKET

Cattle—There was a good run of cattle here Monday, and a very good trade. The demand was very good and prices were 15 to 25c higher on most all sales, over a week ago. At the close of last week prices were firm and buyers were anxious to get prime beefers. The good to choice cattle were in the best demand and the medium and common stuff is not finding as good a sale, but butchers were out for offerings in good numbers, and a clearance on a steady to 25c higher basis ruled on this class.

Beef Steers—Packer buyers have purchased liberally the last few weeks and continued Monday, especially the good fat steers being in heavy demand. Quality of the steer offerings today was very good, although there were no strictly top beef steers sold. Prices on the good grades ruled a good 15 to 25c higher. Steers that sold a week ago at $6.75 to $6.90 brought $7 to $7.10 Monday. There was a large supply of this kind of beef here and all sold early in the trade. Good and medium ones ranged from $6.15 to $6.75, while ordinary Valley and Jersey stuff ranged from $5 to $6. Outlet for all classes was good.

Cows and Heifers—Exceptionally keen demand for she stuff has been in evidence here the last few days, and Monday, with a fair supply, prices advanced 10 to 25c. One load of prime Galloways brought $6.15. There were a few heifers in the bunch. Good cows sold from $5.65 to $5.85; with medium grades around $5.50. Fair grades also met a broad outlet at a similar advance, bringing $5 to $5.25. Common grades sold down to $3.

Stockers and Feeders—The feeder and stocker supply was limited with a fairly good demand. One bunch of choice feeding steers brought $6.25, which is an advance of fully 25c. Good feeding steers sold at $5.50 to $5.75, with other grades down to $4. The stocker trade was slow at steady prices. Best cows and heifers brought $5 to $5.25.

Hogs—Monday's general market ruled much better, there being a very good outside demand and prices were a good 10c higher than last week's closing trade. Packers top was $9.85 for one load of prime heavy packing, while the bulk of good hogs brought $9.70 to $9.75. Butcher top was $9.75. Pigs were in fair supply and sold at steady prices; the bulk brought $8.25 to $8.75.

FIREMEN CELEBRATE BY DANCING

The volunteer fire department of St. Helens gave a big dance Thanksgiving night at the city hall. Wilson's orchestra furnished the music for the occasion, and the evening was enjoyed by all who attended. The dance was well patronized and the fire boys are to be congratulated on giving such an enjoyable event.

MOTHER OF GEORGE GENSMAN PASSES

Mrs. Harriet Gensman, aged 78, and mother of George Gensman, died at the residence of her son Saturday morning at 2 o'clock. She was buried Sunday afternoon in the Warren cemetery. Rev. Plumbley conducted the obsequies.

THANKSGIVING DAY OBSERVED HERE

The day of thanks was generally observed in St. Helens. Wednesday night, at the Methodist church, a union Thanksgiving service was held in which both Mr. Hisey and Mr. Taylor participated. The mills and shipyard and all other industrial plants were closed down and the city and county officials closed their offices. But the only people who worked were the barbers, auto and garage men, the restaurant and confectionery men, and the printers, and they really worked in order to get the Mist out on time.

After many months of faithful service, Marshal H. J. Southard last night turned his badge over to the new marshal, George Potter, whose appointment took effect this morning. Mr. Potter has been a resident of St. Helens for several years, and before coming here was marshal in Kelso, Wash.
